

MYSOLIDWORKS

YOUR ONE PLACE FOR ALL THINGS SOLIDWORKS

GET ANSWERS. LEARN MORE. CONNECT WITH MANUFACTURERS.

MySolidWorks helps you be more more productive by connecting you with relevant SOLIDWORKS® content and services—anytime, anywhere, and on any device. With MySolidWorks, you can get answers about SOLIDWORKS, learn more, and connect with manufacturers.

MySolidWorks provides access to over 100 SOLIDWORKS training videos, enabling you to expand your knowledge on your own schedule and at your own pace. Video lessons complement SOLIDWORKS instructor-led training classes. You can add lessons to your personal training plan to take at a later time and track your progress.

MySolidWorks Standard provides over 200 introductory SOLIDWORKS training videos, online storage services for sharing designs, and a worldwide network of manufacturers who can help bring your designs to life. MySolidWorks Standard is available to SOLIDWORKS Subscription Services users to help design teams gain skills to work faster and smarter with SOLIDWORKS.

MySolidWorks Professional provides access to SOLIDWORKS certification preparation courses, extended online training with over 400 training videos. Topics include: SOLIDWORKS Essentials, Advanced Part Modeling, Assembly Modeling, Electrical Design, Sheet Metal Design, Mold Design, Simulation, PDM, and more. This offer is available for customers with SOLIDWORKS Subscription Services who want to provide their design team with the most efficient and effective work environment.

MySolidWorks Drive connects cloud-based file storage services, such as Dropbox™ and Google Drive™, with MySolidWorks. MySolidWorks Drive enables SOLIDWORKS users to view their designs online with the eDrawings® online viewer and easily share large design files from anywhere with manufacturers, colleagues, and vendors.

MySolidWorks Manufacturing Network lets SOLIDWORKS users bring their designs to life by easily finding and connecting with reliable manufacturers offering 3D printing, sheet metal, CNC machining, and injection molding services. It allows users to get physical parts made fast, while manufacturers are able to reach SOLIDWORKS users more directly to promote their services and respond to RFQs.
